DEDICATION

Miss Phelan:

During our high school years, we have turned to you frequently for help and encouragement, — the girls, particularly, for your wise counsel; all of us, for your generous assistance. It is very difficult for us, now, to show adequate appreciation to you for all that you have done for us.

It is our hope that the dedication of this book to you will indicate our thanks for your untiring efforts in our behalf.

PROLOGUE

During the past one hundred years, there have been many changes in the educational system, both in teaching methods and student-teacher relations.

The caricature drawn throughout the book signifies progress. Just as he indicates progress in his modes of transportation, so has Andover's educational system made progress.

It is our hope that Andover High School will continue to grow, as it has during the past one hundred years.

Because class meetings are hard to arrange, this year a class council was formed. The object of the council is to discuss important class matters. The council, made up of the class officers and a number of class members, was able to take immediate action on many important issues, which otherwise might have been delayed.

It is our feeling that the class council was an invaluable aid to class activities.

CLASS HISTORY

As we started our Sophomore year in September, 1956, we discovered a new world confronting us. There were new schedules, new teachers, and new faces to get used to.

During our Sophomore year, with David Pearson as our president, we held several bakery sales and two successful dances. It was during this year that a new high school was being built. The thought of being in a new building was quite exciting, but at the same time, it was a little sad to think that we would not be attending classes again at Punchard. Punchard had given us many wonderful times. Our Sophomore year was really quite successful, though, and our high school years were off to a good start.

Our Junior year came all too quickly. Being in a new school, we had many things with which to acquaint ourselves. We will never forget how often we got lost and how long it took us to get familiar with the new building.

At our first class meeting, Willie Simpson, President, selected our ring committee. How excited we were at the thought of getting our class rings, even though it seemed like years before they finally came. It was during our Junior year that we held an outdoor bakery sale. It was a new and also profitable experience. We also held a spring dance, April Showers. Remember the umbrellas painted on the cafeteria windows? Before we knew it, it was time to start working on our prom. As everyone knew, this was to be the biggest event of the year. A prom planning board was chosen by the class officers, and George Connors was elected Prom Chairman by class vote. The planning board put in a lot of time trying to make our's the best prom ever. We carried out the title, "Festival of Lanterns," in a Japanese theme, with a pond, a bridge, and a mountain scene in the background. We put a lot of hard work into the prom, but all our efforts seemed worth while when the big night arrived. Everyone had such a good time, in spite of the fact that our pond leaked.

Our Senior year produced an all girl slate of officers. Carol Winkley served as our able president, and proved that a girl can do just as good a job as any boy. We formed a class council to discuss problems when class meetings could not be held. It proved to be a very successful organization.

In the midst of college and job applications, we managed to enjoy a very busy year. Our first big project was a Fur Fashion Show. Our own "class beauties" modeled the furs, and we even gave a stole away as a door prize. At the same time, we sold school pennants and Christmas cards, which proved to be the more successful project. We also held monthly bakery sales. It was good to have a little money coming into the treasury every month.

Probably the biggest of all our projects during our Senior year was the yearbook, Andanno. The Co-editors, Lynne Morris and Tom Nedelka, had a big job on their hands. The various committees worked very hard in order to put out a good book. Many, many hours were devoted to putting the book together. What a wonderful way the yearbook is to remember our high school days.

It was a big problem to decide what to have as our class production — stunt night, musical, minstrel, or play. We finally decided on a musical-stunt night. Mary Dumont and Bob Haggerty were elected co-chairmen of "Centennial Review", our production which had the last one hundred years of entertainment as its theme.

Graduation is certainly a sad event. We have so many, many things to thank Andover High School for. It has given us many good times during the last three years. And let us not forget the education that Andover High has provided for us.

John Van Nest, president of the Junior Class, called the first class meeting to order on September 8, 1958. At our first class council meeting, we elected the ring committee and appointed Janet Lord chairman of it. After electing Jane Fitzgerald and Lynn Johnson co-chairmen of the Junior Prom, biggest event of the year, the class began to prepare for it. We even have found time for two successful dances.

The class of 1960 is hoping that next year, as seniors, they will have their best year yet.

Respectfully submitted,
Deborah Newcomb
Secretary

The meeting of the Sophomore Class was called to order on October 31, 1958. Many ideas for raising money were discussed. Remember all the A.H.S. buttons we sold? They really sold fast!

On January 9th "Winter Wonderland" was held and everyone who attended had a good time.

Being up at the new high school has really been a great experience for us. With all the fun we have had this year as sophomores, we are all looking forward to two more wonderful years at Andover High School.

On September 15, 1959, Connie Barry, president of the Student Council, called the meeting to order at 8:15. The first thing that the Council participated in this year was the annual fall convention which was held at Dracut. The biggest undertaking the Student Council has is Student Council Week. During this week the Council sponsors a dance, a boy and girl tag day, and two assemblies. One of the assemblies will be an exchange with Woodbury High School. The exchange assemblies were started last year by the Council and has been carried on this year. On May 2 the council will attend the spring convention at Framingham. The meeting was ajourned at 8:45.

FOOTBALL

The Blue Devils, with a Sophomore and Junior team, posted a 3-5 record for the season. At the off-set of the year, things looked optimistic. The team was in high spirits to take on Swampscott, but that game was canceled. However, the spirit was carried over to the next week to whip Danvers 18-8. The next encounter was with a tough Billerica team which proved to be a little too much for the Blue and Gold. After that defeat, Andover had a bad time getting back in stride.

Injuries coupled with bad breaks were responsible for losing five straight games. These losses were very deceiving, however, because on many occasions the Andoverites proved hard to beat. The Methuen game was a good example of this, when the very heavily favored Methuen eleven found themselves on the short end of the 14-6 score at half time. But a series of fumbles and bad breaks made Methuen the victors 26-14.

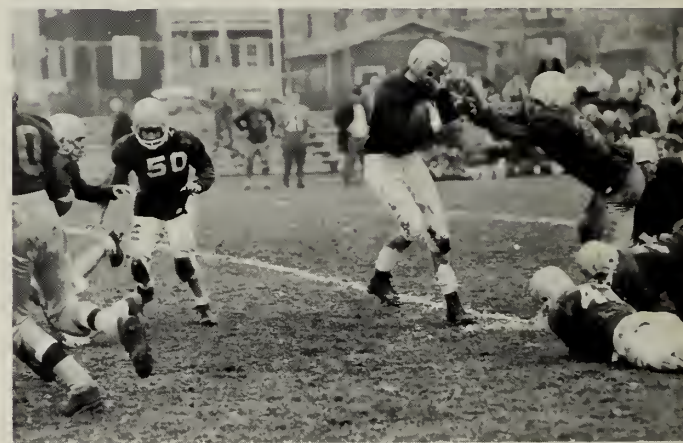

A discouraged but very determined Andover team took the field against Cambridge Latin, and after an up hill fight, won. The Turkey Day game against North Andover proved to be the high point of the season; for the Blue and Gold completely out played the weaker North Andover to the tune of 24-8.

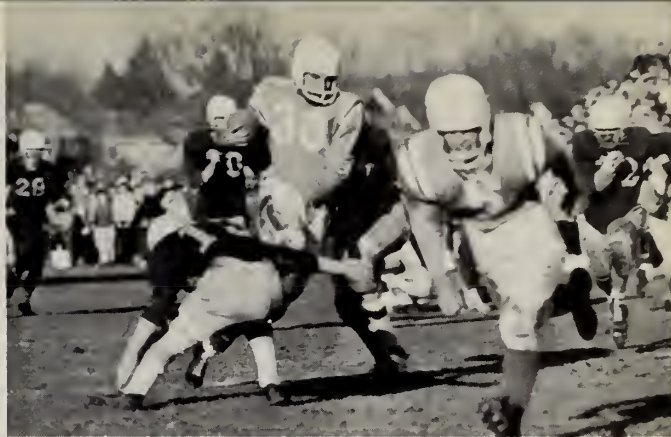

Andover boasts of a fast, versitle back field, consisting of speedsters Fred Allen, Bob Haggerty, Frank Emmett, and Allen May, hard driving Jim McKiniry, Al Carlson, Jack Clark and the deceptiveness of Jim Dowd and Bill Gallant.

BASKETBALL

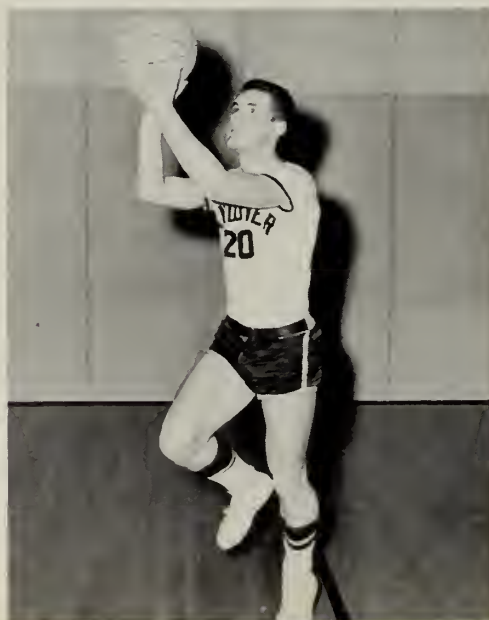

In their first season in the Northeastern Conference, the Blue Devils, coached by Mr. Gaffney, finished with a 7-7 record. The overall season record was 7 wins and twelve losses.

For the second straight year, our boys, led by Jim Dowd with 333 points in nineteen games, advanced to the finals of the Bay State Tournament in Class B before bowing to a strong Walpole team. Jim's excellent work won him a position on the Class B All Star team.

At the Winter Sports Dance, Jim Dowd was elected captain for the next year, and received the Most Valuable Player award.

On February 25, Captain George Ziegra and Jim Dowd represented the Blue Devils at the Northeastern Conference All Star game held in our gym.

GIRL'S SPORTS

If you happened to pass the gym after school any Tuesday or Thursday during basketball season, you would have seen many girls actively engaged in this sport. Under the direction of Miss Sally Marshall, various teams were formed, and by method of elimination, there was soon a champion basketball team. What better way do we girls have of learning fundamental rules and good techniques of basketball than by actual play?

GIRL'S SOCCER

The first organized girl's sport this year was soccer. Under the direction of Miss Sally Marshall and with the co-operation of many girls, various teams were formed and play got under way. By process of elimination there was soon a champion soccer team. The girls had a good time and while doing so were also able to practice the skills they had been taught.

REGULAR CHEERLEADERS

SUBSTITUTES

Sylvia Bernard; Nancy Pearson; Judith Maxwell; Carol Perry; Judith Scott; Suzanne Wennick; Joan LeGendre.

CHEERLEADERS

Fifteen girls, eight regulars and seven substitutes, are known to be our Andover High Cheerleaders. Under the leadership of Captain Betty Campbell, the cheerleaders have supported the different athletic teams with tireless effort. In short, Pep, Enthusiasm and Spirit are three words which describe our cheerleaders perfectly.

CLASS PROPHECY

Recently I visited the NBC Studio. On the tour, I met Sharon Riggan. She is the president's private secretary and was on vacation. Our tour guide was Marion Baer. We saw Dave Cronin and Norm Mailloux who are now camera men for NBC. They were working on the Mary Jo Owens "Science For Today" show.

On our tour, we saw several of our former classmates who are now celebrities. Bruce Meyers is now one of the leading news commentators in the country. Louis McIntyre and Bobbie Kocher are now the stars of a tv program, "Dance Party". We learned that Dean Martin has finally found a new partner after all these years — John Catania. Eddie Joiner was preparing for the Arthur Godfrey Show. He plays the sax all over the world. We met Willie Simpson and Roy Sharpe rehearsing their hit record for the Ed Sullivan Show. They said that Bev Muise was now selling the cars on the show. We also had a few minutes talk with Liz King who is "the" fashion designer these days. She is going to be on Person to Person this week. She mentioned that Connie Barry was the stewardess on her flight from California. In California, she had recently seen the movie star Pat Sanguedolce and her producer, Bob Charland. She also saw Barbara Hatch as Hollywood's newest comedienne. On the tour we had a chance to see a news broadcast. George Connors, the U.S. Secretary of State, has just returned from a tour of Russia. Bob Van Dewoestine has recently perfected the rocket for space transportation. Jack Jackson will be the first pilot. Bob Hawes, Bill Walsh, and Steve McKittrick have just returned from a safari to Africa. Over there, they saw Stuart Henderson as he killed a white elephant.

I recognized a lot of names in the sports bulletins. Charlie Barrett has recently broken several gymnastic records. Ed Bolia has set a new record running the mile. Lois Bennett is the star basketball player of American women and is organizing a team of female Globe Trotters. She is trying to get Gerry Guerin to join the team also. Soon the tour was over, and I was headed out the door when I ran into Leslie Hart. She was writing an article on NBC Tour Policies for the New York Times.

I decided to eat lunch at the Waldorf Astoria. I was amazed to see Allan Smeltzer as the head waiter and right in front of him was Joyce Hajj as the Hostess. Allan and Ethel Lynch are married now and have five children. The chef for the Waldorf is Bob Mirasola.

This afternoon I noticed that Terry Sweeney and Benny Thompson have opened a photography store in the heart of New York. They have just finished taking pictures of Mrs. America, Alice Mosher, for an article in "Life".

I soon left New York and headed back for Andover. On the train, I met Gates Poore who was returning from a business trip. He is the head of a large maple sugar company. He mentioned that he had heard that Dave Pearson is a teacher at some private school in New York state. He also said that Carol Winkley and Gerry Znamierowski are married and that Gerry is a successful business man.

When I got back to Andover, I went into the library and saw Linda Plummer. She's a librarian now. Several of the AHS alumni of '59 work in Andover. Bud Simeone is a pharmacist in Simeone's. Kathy Nelligan is a history teacher in the high school. Margaret Nicoll, Joan Lynch and Denise McCarthy are also teachers. Margaret and Denise are teaching in the grade school and Joan is teaching at the high school. Dick Bernard is a travelling salesman for Electrolux.

Several of my former classmates are working in Lawrence. Kathy Callahan is a lab technician at Lawrence General Hospital and Gen Lampariello, Bev Reynolds, and Gail Marruzzi are nurses at other Lawrence hospitals. Bruce Paparella is working in the family business. I hear that Pat Adams is a nurse superintendant at Boston Medical Center. Janet and Judy Murray are also nurses, working at Lenox Hill Hospital in New York City.

There are several engineers in our class. George Ziegra is doing research engineering at M.I.T. Tom Nedelka, Bill Nicoll, John Lowe, Larry Mitchell, and Frank Froburg are all engineers.

Three girls in our class are models. They are Jackie Bamford, Marley Freeman, and Frannie Bishop.

Walking up Main Street, I met Janice Snow and Ellie Webster, both happily married now. I stopped to talk to them for a few minutes. They had just come from Bill Mahoney's Supermarket and mentioned that Jane Simpson liked New Mexico so much that she is now living on a cattle ranch there. Bill Dobbie is her head formen. Edward Pacht is a professional chess player and won the championship. Bob Haggerty is playing the stock market. She said that Susan Treanor is an exchange teacher in Denmark. Just before we parted, she mentioned that Betty Campbell is giving dancing lessons. It seems that Linda Delaney and Mary Derbyshire have their children taking lessons from her. David Hudson is her accompanist.

That evening, I read in the paper that a collection of pictures by Anne Berthold are now being shown in the Addison Art Gallery. I also saw that the circus was coming to Boston and Tom Cummings was to be the ring master. In that circus, Linda Kinnear and Joan Titmas do a daring act on bareback horses trained by Edna Turner. Betty Homer is married to the Strong man. The engagements of Pat Flaherty and Carol Sutton were announced. Doctor Marion Kramer is going to talk in a high school assembly next week.

This evening, I got a phone call from B. J. McEvoy who is the founder of the McEvoy Charm School. Her teachers are Rosemary Palermo and Pat Mottram. We talked for a few minutes and she mentioned that Irene Cordts is a prominent lawyer in Boston. Jessie Gill is a professional ballet dancer and opera singer. Moira Sullivan has been married several years and has three children. Teddy Zubrinski is a teacher in the grade schools and George Reed is a taxidermist for the Museum of Natural History. I also learned that several of the boys in our class are venturing into the unknown. Neal DesRoches is exploring some of the unmapped parts of Canada. Lester Gorrie and David Rollins are in an experimental space ship.

After we hung up, I picked up a magazine to read. I noticed one of Eddie Ratyna's cartoons and an article on Scouting by Brian Allen. Then I picked up a back issue of the Andover Townsman. It had a picture of Joyce Barleon, Nancy Kaylor, Judy Lamanna, Gail Mowry, and Rosemarie Picard, who are forming a club for secretaries. Judy Webb is the club president. It also had wedding pictures of Jane Beaven and Mary Dumont. I read that Walter Mooney was returning from a world cruise. Apparently he was the heir to a rich oil man. He said that he saw Carol Stocks and Marilyn Roberge at the Eiffel Tower. There was an announcement that Irmagard Michl is visiting the Peatmans. She is now a physical education teacher in Austria. There was also an article about one of the local residents, Lynne Morris, joining a band of gypsies. She is now telling fortunes. I noticed an ad for the real estate office of Poirier and Todt. There was another ad for Marjorie Hunt's beauty salon. I understand that June Kaczynski is a manicurist there, and Gloria Lawrie is the company's best hair stylist.

This has sure been a busy day. I wonder what our class will be doing ten years from now??
